SDM RECAP

The Spring District Meeting was held at Mamaroneck High School on Thursday, February 5, bringing together chapters from Roosevelt, Lakeland, Hendrick Hudson, Eastchester, Mamaroneck, Fox Lane, Walter Panas, Rye Neck, and the French American School.

Throughout the event, members competed in a variety of individual and team competitions. Practice tests were also available to help students prepare for the State Leadership Conference. We were also honored to have Mr. Michael Murray as our keynote speaker, who shared valuable insights and inspiration with attendees. State Officers Alex Robinson, Skye Fishman, and Ebuka Emelumadu were present to support the event.

Awards were presented to top competitors in each category. Overall, the meeting was a great success, and District 3S members left more motivated, confident, and prepared to grow as future business leaders.

PREPARATIONS FOR NYSLC

The District 3S Spring District Meeting (SDM) for Future Business Leaders of America was held on February 5, 2026, at Mamaroneck High School in New York. The event brought together members from across the district for a full day of leadership, competition, and celebration.

The meeting began with opening remarks from Mr. Michael Murray, who welcomed attendees and highlighted the importance of leadership, professionalism, and taking full advantage of the opportunities FBLA provides.

Following the opening session, students competed in preliminary rounds of their respective events. Members participated in objective tests, presentations, and performance-based competitions, demonstrating the preparation and dedication they have shown throughout the season. After the competitions concluded, members gathered for dinner, giving students from different schools the chance to connect, reflect on their performances, and build stronger district relationships.

The evening ended with an exciting award ceremony, where top competitors were recognized for their achievements.

Overall, the 2026 District 3S Spring District Meeting was a successful and memorable event that showcased the talent, professionalism, and leadership of FBLA members across the district.
